

Declaration of Mutual Commitment to the Code of Ethics for Behavior Analysts
(BCBAs and RBTs)

The science of human behavior can be used shape lives in a positive manner, and often assists the most vulnerable persons in our society to lead more fulfilling lives. In that application, the power of ABA entrusts a great deal of responsibility to the behavior analyst and their provider organization. This power and responsibility create a need for a Code of Ethics to guide the provision of behavioral services, to ensure that services are delivered at the highest quality possible and with the utmost respect to clients, their caregivers, and their service providers.

This document codifies a Provider Organization and its Employees' a joint commitment to The Code of Ethics for Behavior Analysts and the RBT Ethics Code as published by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board and found at <https://www.bacb.com/ethics-information/ethics-codes/>, in their most current form.

This Provider Organization and Employee agree that all known Code violations will be reported to _____. The Organization and Employee agree to maintain a culture and practice of non-retaliation for reporting suspected violations. Organization and Employee also agree that the appropriate procedure for reporting violations should be done as prescribed by the Behavior Analysis Certification Board and aligned with the current best practices found at <https://www.bacb.com/ethics-information/reporting-to-ethics-department/>

Organization and Employee also express their joint desire to the adhere to these four core ethical principles: 1. Benefit Others, 2. Treat Others with Compassion, Dignity, and Respect, 3. Behave with Integrity, and 4. Ensure their Competence, and to hold each other accountable in the best interests of the clients they serve.

Organization Representative Signature

Employee Signature

Organization Representative Name and Title

Employee Name

Date

Date